Miss S. Sutcliffe,
870 State Street,
Brooklyn, N. Y.

Dear Miss Sutcliffe:

I find, on looking over the papers connected with the annual meeting of this Society, January 17th last, that Mr. Huntington did not leave a copy of his annual address, as President, with me, and owing to the work of preparing for the exhibition, which started in about that time and kept us all pretty busy, I did not get around to preparing the proceedings of that meeting for publication until now, and so did not think to get the copy from him.

It occurred to me that possibly you might have a copy of it among your papers, and if you have, and will let me have it, it will help us very greatly, our Journal, which should have been out before this, is held up, waiting for the annual proceedings, and Mr. Huntington's address is a most important part of these proceedings, and they can not be printed without it.

Please advise me regarding this as soon as possible, and very greatly oblige,

Yours very sincerely,

370 State Street
Brooklyn, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Belden:

I regret that I am unable to be of any assistance to you in the matter of Mr. Huntington's annual address, as I have no copy of it. Again regretting this, believe me,

Yours very sincerely
S. Sutcliffe
